

JESUS DIED FOR OUR SIN ACCORDING TO SCRIPTURE

Jesus died for our sin means that Jesus died to defeat sin. By defeating sin, Jesus defeated death.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: 1 Corinthians 15:3,4

Since we have been united with him in his death, we will also be raised to life as he was. We know that our old sinful selves were crucified with Christ so that sin might lose its power in our lives. We are no longer slaves to sin. Romans 6:5,6

Jesus died for our sin means that Jesus died to have the right as Second Adam to remove sin from all creation. John 1:29 Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.

Jesus died for our sin means that Jesus gained the right to take away sin by dying a sinless death.

For what the Law could not do [that is, overcome sin and remove its penalty, its power] being weakened by the flesh [man's nature without the Holy Spirit], God did: He sent His own Son in the likeness of sinful man as an offering for sin. And He condemned sin in the flesh [subdued it and overcame it in the person of His own Son], Romans 8:3

And you know that Jesus came to take away our sins, and there is no sin in him. 1 John 3:5
Jesus allowed sin to kill His physical body and this act of sin upon and against Jesus condemned sin to execution. Since a sinless man should not be killed, sin has proven itself to be worthy of extermination. The Court of Heaven has declared the Lamb of God to be worthy to judge sin and remove sin. Revelation 5:9

Jesus died for our sin means that Jesus died a sinless death and defeated Satan. Colossians 2:15

When He had disarmed the rulers and authorities [those supernatural forces of evil operating against us], He disgraced them publicly, having triumphed over them through the cross.

Jesus died for our sin means that Jesus died to reconcile all things to Himself.

Colossians 1:20 and through him to reconcile all things unto himself, having made peace through the blood of his cross; through him, I say, whether things upon the earth, or things in the heavens.

Romans 8:18-25 Creation will be brought rescued from the effects of sin and death.

Jesus died for our sin means that Jesus reconciles to God all who cooperate with Holy Spirit conviction and allow the Spirit to bring them to believe in Jesus and receive Jesus as Lord and Savior.

Romans 10:9, 13 If you openly declare that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."

John 1:12 But to all who did receive Him, to those who believed in His name, He gave the right to become children of God—

John 3:16 Whosoever believes in Jesus will have eternal life.

John 11:25 Jesus told her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Anyone who believes in me will live, even after dying.

You may have thought that Jesus died for our sin so that God could forgive us our sins. But this is backward from the truth. God always freely forgives us of our sin, that is He lets go of any sin committed against Him, and because He loves us that is why He sent Jesus to die for our sin so that we could receive new life in Jesus by believing in Him.

God freely forgives sin. What is the meaning of God has forgiven your sin? God has always let go of any sin committed against Him. 2 Cor. 5:19; Romans 5:8; Colossians 3:13 God does not hold anyone back from receiving eternal life. This is provisional forgiveness. It saves no one. Through your cooperation with the Spirit, you must receive forgiveness of sin (rescue from sin). Calling on God to save you through Christ results in eternal life and rescue from sin. God is rescuing from bondage to sin. Acts 3:19; Matthew 3:8; 1 John 1:9

Receiving eternal life results in judicial forgiveness and parental forgiveness.

God will complete the work He began in you including releasing you from sin. Philippians 1:6

2 Cor. 5:19 God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not counting people's sins against them [but canceling them]. And He has committed to us the message of reconciliation [that is, restoration to favor with God].

Colossians 3:13 Make allowance for each other's faults, and forgive anyone who offends you. Remember, the Lord forgave you, so you must forgive others.
